Court Records

Arrest Records

An arrest usually occurs when a law enforcement officer is investigating or trying to prevent a crime, detaining someone and depriving them of their liberty. Arrests may occur during a traffic stop, for example, or as a result of an arrest warrant issued for a person of interest. An arrest does not mean a person has been convicted of a crime, however. This only means they may have been detained by police or another officer at some point in time. We do not guarantee that the information provided below is accurate, complete, or related to the individual searched.

Criminal/Traffic Records

Criminal offenses are those which result in a conviction in the court of law and a sentence of jail time and/or fines. Misdemeanor crimes result in up to one year in jail; felonies carry sentences longer than one year.

Traffic offenses can include anything from tickets for speeding to driving under the influence. Moving violations are very minor, but a criminal offense such as a DUI means that person has been convicted in court and provided a sentence. Other major traffic violations include reckless driving and driving with a suspended/revoked license. We do not guarantee that the information provided below is accurate, complete, or related to the individual searched.

Warrants

A warrant is a legal authorization, typically issued by a judge, which allows a person's individual rights to be infringed upon in the interest of serving justice in the legal system. It also protects the person carrying out the warrant from claims of damages. A legal officer or sheriff typically carries out a warrant after a judge approves and/or issues it. There are several types of warrants including:

Arrest warrant: calls for the arrest of named individual in warrant

Search warrant: allows a search of an individual's personal property, business or residence

Bench warrant: allows for an individual to be arrested and brought in front of a judge, typically due to failing to appear for a scheduled court appearance

We do not guarantee that the information provided below is accurate, complete, or related to the individual searched.

Inmate Records

An inmate is a person who is currently incarcerated at a local jail or state or federal prison. Inmates are sentenced to a period of incarceration by a judge after being convicted of a crime. Misdemeanor crimes carry a sentence of up to one year in jail, and felonies carry sentences of one year or longer. Sentence length depends upon the crime, local laws and maximum sentences, as well as whether the inmate is a repeat offender. We do not guarantee that the information provided below is accurate, complete, or related to the individual searched.

No Inmate Records were found on Nick Deroose. Records may be available in other states for this individual. Click here to expand your search nationwide - EXPAND SEARCH

Patriot Act

The Patriot Act was signed into law on October 26, 2001, and called for expanded surveillance of anyone suspected of terrorist activities, as well as wiretaps and business record reviews. Any individual suspect under this law may be placed under investigation with the FBI as well as local law enforcement to determine if they are a risk. Further action such as arrest and conviction of terror-related crimes may follow, dependent upon investigation findings. We do not guarantee that the information provided below is accurate, complete, or related to the individual searched.

No Patriot Act were found on Nick Deroose.

Bankruptcies, Liens & Judgments

This section of the report will contain bankruptcy filings, legal judgements, property & tax liens. There are many types of bankruptcies but the two most common consist of liquidation (chapter 7) or reorganization (chapter 13). A legal judgment is a decision by the court that resolves an issue and decides the rights and obligations of any parties involved. A lien is a form of security interest granted over an item of property to secure the payment of a debt or performance of some other obligation. We do not guarantee that the information provided below is accurate, complete, or related to the individual searched.
