ABUSE CYCLES, HE RESPONDS

ABUSE CYCLES OPERATING WITHIN A CONTROLLED FRAMEWORK. POTENTIATED BY A LACK OF SOCIAL MOBILITY AND DREAM FOR FULFILLMENT

WITH JOEY'S LAST INSERTION BEARING A KIND OF CRYPTIC INSINUATION

THE SUN BREAKS CYCLES YOU KNOW?

RESOURCE depletion, MORAL relativism; the US just hostilely invaded Venezuela

Every day after that felt like a bad fucking day

In its phase of completion it will inundate
itself

When civilization
is in its building phase, population is in balance with its development

It then becomes isolated

The decay
begins to consume...

*In the end it twas they who were lonley...
I chose to be with the People, to stay mobile even after they tried to suck me in. The saddest part was watching them fade. Their madness... a great falling away of all expectation.*

The awakening is here. Embrace it.
